Informant Development and Management

CNOA & HIDTA are jointly hosting "Informant Development and Management". This class will define the "Informant" and how we as Law Enforcement Officers develop, maintain and work street level and major level informants. Discussion will cover types of informants, liability issues, development and use of informants during operations. If you want to truly understand how to cultivate and utilize informants during law enforcement operations, then this class is for you. Instructional topics include:

- Development of Informants
- Documenting and Maintaining Informant Files
- Liability Issues
- Using Informants during operations
- How to avoid disclosing Informants in court
- Court procedures involving Informants.

Instructor: Rick Serrato, Santa Anna Police Department (Retired)

Rick Serrato is a 28 year law enforcement veteran with over 18 years of narcotics experience. He is a certified CNOA instructor, DOJ-Advance training instructor, and he teaches at community colleges and law enforcement agencies throughout the country. Rick was previously assigned to the narcotics task force and was a member of the Covert Operations Informant Network Unit (COIN) He has taught this class for over ten years and is recognized as an expert on informant issues. Rick is a past recipient of the Al Stewart Memorial Award (Narcotic Officer of the Year) from CNOA.
